This section covers statistical indicators about Gender and Youth. It presents empirical data of socio-economic indicators in the country about the Youth from which trends of development, growth levels and interventions can be assessed.

Youth

The EICV7 results shows that 24.7% of youth population live in households below the poverty line while only 4.9% of youth population live in households below...

Gender

The findings from EICV7 reveal that 26% of households were headed by females while 4% of households were headed by females in the absence of a male head.
Save as PDF