The standards and methods in statistics are essential for ensuring the reliability and validity of statistical data. They guide the design, collection, analysis, and dissemination of statistical information. All these non-statistical publications are mostly in PDF format.

Standards and methods

- GSBPM - NISR Statistical Production Process Model
- Labour Force Survey (LFS) - Methodology
- Methodological note on the main revision on Formal External Trade in Goods
- SAS Metadata Handbook-2024
- NISR Survey Operating Standard Procedure Manual
- Ibipimo by'Imibereho y'Abanyarwanda
- Teachers' discussion guide for reading data with children
- Compendium: Statistical Concepts and Definitions
- Customized Central Product Classification (CPC)
- Visa instruction manual (Version 2)
- Rwanda Metadata Handbook (EDPRS 2 and MDGs)
- National Quality Assurance Framework
- Labour Statistics Framework of Rwanda - 2014
- Visa instruction manual (Version 1)
- Rwanda Classification Manual (ISCED 97)
- Rwanda Classification Manual (ISCO - 08)
- Rwanda Classification Manual (ISIC, Rev.4)
- The System of Agricultural Statistics in Rwanda (Improvement Action Plan)
- National Accounts - Data sources and compilation methods (2011 Edition)
- Customized Classification of Individual Consumption according to Purpose (COICOP)

Save as PDF