The National Data Sharing for Government policy aims to ensure that data is shared in a protected and well governed manner between agencies of the GoR to enhance decision making, facilitate collaboration and provide the basis for fulfilling national policy objectives and facilitating digital transformation for the benefit of citizens of Rwanda.

Key objectives are to facilitate the free flow of information without creating unnecessary obstacles and to promote data innovation and solutions to complex development challenges while meeting any concerns related to data protection and privacy and regulatory compliance.

Reference document (PDF)

- Rwanda_National_Data_Sharing_Policy.pdf (pdf, 808.78 KB)
  LAST UPDATED: 28 Apr 2026

Source

Laws & Policies

Save as PDF